

ACADEMIC GRAND ROUNDS

Kay Redfield Jamison, PhD

Professor of Psychiatry
The Johns Hopkins School of Medicine

“The Consequences of Going Public About Having Mental Illness”

Wednesday, June 2, 2010

Butler Hospital ◇ Ray Hall Conference Center ◇ 11:00 am - 12:30 pm

Objectives:

At the conclusion of this presentation, participants should be able to: discuss the risks of public disclosure of mental illness; explore the complexities of the responses of colleagues to disclosure; and critically consider the benefits of public disclosure.

Accreditations: Please See Below *

This activity is not supported by a commercial entity.

For more information please contact Kristen Schroeder at 401-455-6430

CHILD AND ADOLESCENT PSYCHIATRY GRAND ROUNDS

Yifrah Kaminer, MD, MBA

Professor of Psychiatry & Pediatrics
Department of Psychiatry & Alcohol Research Center
University of Connecticut Health Center

“The Developing Brain & Youth High-Risk Behaviors: Barriers and Opportunities for Intervention and Public Policies”

Wednesday, June 9, 2010

Bradley Hospital ◇ Pine Room ◇ 11:00 am - 12:00 pm

Objectives:

At the conclusion of this presentation, participants should be able to: describe the results of youth high-risk behaviors on youth mortality, morbidity, safety and well being; explore the developmental neurocognitive and other physiological changes and their impact on increasing youth high-risk behaviors; and critically consider potential interventions and public policies changes that might reduce the potential harm to youth (with special emphasis on youth driving and substance use).

Accreditations: Please See Below *

This activity is not supported by a commercial entity.

For more information please contact Gail Mills at 401-444-7573

 Accreditations:

Physicians: The Alpert Medical School of Brown University is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to provide continuing medical education for physicians. The Alpert Medical School designates this educational activity for a maximum of 1 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™. Physicians should claim only credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in this activity.

Psychologists: The Alpert Medical School of Brown University has been approved by the Rhode Island Psychological Association to offer continuing education credits for Psychologists. The Alpert Medical School maintains responsibility for the program. This program is approved for Category 1 CE Credit.